GANJA CONTRACT—PAYMENT OF KEISTS INTO TALUK TREASURY.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts, Treasury Department, Circular No. 1669, dated 5th August 1886.

The ganja contract of the whole Province for the year 1886—87 having been farmed to Messrs. Davy & Co., I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to instruct the Amildars in your District to receive into their Taluk Treasuries once a week any sum of money tendered by the Agents of the Ganja Contractors, crediting the same in the deposit accounts.

2. The Amildars should be careful to see that the Agent states distinctly in his chalan on what account the payments are made.

3. On the first day of each month, the Taluk Treasury Officer will prepare from his daily C. account a statement showing in detail the sums received during the previous month on account of the ganja contract and transmit it at once to the Treasury Officer of his District. The latter will have these statements checked and a statement, compiled for the whole District, forwarding it to the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore, the officer who has to settle the accounts of the Contracting Firm, together with a Transfer Receipt on the Bangalore District Treasury for the total amount so as to reach before the 15th of the same month.

OVERLAND AND CONTINENTAL MONEY ORDERS.
